

Please keep the Do not Disturb law as is. It is so frustrating, for example to be in the middle of preparing or having dinner and the solicitation starts, an interruption. If I want their services, I'll call when and IF I need their services.